Application Form to become a COTA Community Ambassador

COTA Community Ambassadors are volunteers who will be a key focal point for COTA Queensland for their community. The Ambassadors will be part of a pilot project to collect and share information about the issues that affect seniors, including conducting surveys and collecting stories that inform COTA's advocacy and policy work and sharing this information with their community. Ambassadors will assist in the inclusion of older Queenslanders to make our State more age-friendly.

To apply complete the following application form and return to Kerry Clarke via email on education@cotaqld.org.au.
