

Right where you live

Better rights for retirement living

FREE COMMUNITY INFORMATION SESSIONS

Everybody has their own ideas about how and where they'd like to live for the rest of their lives.

The decision is very individual and can be complex.

Find out more about your rights in a retirement village, a manufactured home in a residential park – or as someone considering your options for retirement living.

These sessions aim to help you to:

Identify important considerations before moving into a Retirement Village or buying a Manufactured Home in a Residential Park

Understand what laws have changed recently and how this might affect you as either a current or future resident or manufactured homeowner

Find out where to go for advice and support

Sessions are delivered by volunteer Peer Educators, who are seniors themselves, are fully-trained and are volunteering their time to help talk you through information in a way that is easy to understand.
